

Southern Tablelands Ecosystems Park Inc. a regional botanic garden, education and ecosystem recovery centre for the Southern Tablelands located at Forest 20, National Arboretum Canberra www.step.asn.au

Of Interest at STEP Forest 20 October 2016

Acacia pravissima Wedge-leaved Wattle

Acacia cultriformis, Knife-leaved Wattle

Clematis microphylla, Small-leaved Clematis

Acacia melanoxylon, Blackwood

Acacia buxifolia Box-leaf Wattle and Acacia ulicifolia Juniper Wattle in left bottom corner

Acacia acinacea, Gold-dust Wattle

Styandra glauca, Nodding Blue Lily

Hardenbergia violacea, False Sarsaparilla

Gynatrix pulchella, Hempbush

Calotis glandulosa, Mauve Burr-daisy

Indigofera australis, Austral indigo

Leucochrysum albicans, Hoary Sunray

Our working bees are held each Thursday starting at 8am and finishing about 11-30. Please feel free to join our friendly group whenever you are able. We break for the best in Canberra BYO morning tea at 10am at the tables near our shed.

Photos taken on 2nd October 2016

Photos and text by Andy Russell
email membership@step.asn.au
Web <http://www.step.asn.au> web page currently undergoing an upgrade.